LUNCH PASS RULES

1. Parents are required to complete the permission form in person in the school administration office.
2. The lunch pass is valid during the lunch period only. Any student not returning for class after lunch must have a parent/guardian call the same day or be considered truant. A student may not leave campus with the pass at any other time during school hours.
3. Students holding a lunch pass are permitted to take vehicles off campus during the lunch period.
4. The administration may revoke lunch passes of students who are excessively late to class, have multiple trancies or are failing to meet the requirements for graduation. Lunch pass privileges may also be revoked for loitering, smoking, unsafe driving and any other behavior that may reflect negatively upon the school.
5. A student who loans the lunch pass to another student will have the pass revoked.
6. If a student does not have the lunch pass in his/her possession on any given day, the student may not leave campus. The office will not issue a temporary replacement pass for the day.
