

EL DORADO HIGH SCHOOL

Weekly Bulletin

WEEKLY BULLETIN FOR March 22–26, 2021 | 5 Day Bell Schedule

Announcements

If you'd like to switch from remote to 2 day in-person, then fill out this form by March 24th! You must sign on with the student's email to complete the form. The 2 day in-person instruction starts April 5th to April 16th.

As you've heard by now, we start a 4 day in-person schedule on April 19th! You can choose to be in-person or be remote, but All parents must sign on to Aeries to accept or decline the 4 day a week instruction. Click here for step by step instructions.

We have made history in CSF (California Scholarship Federation) with a record number of members that qualified for this semester, during a pandemic school year! With our freshmen class, we had a grand total of 423 students that qualified for CSF membership. We have never broken 400 students in the past, so this is truly a historic moment! Great job CSF members!

Yorba Linda High School has successfully started a Black Student Union and they would like to present to other high schools how to bring this club to fruition. A zoom meeting is scheduled for April 7 at 3PM. Please complete this Google Form if you are interested in hearing more. A link will be sent the day of the meeting to all those who sign up.

On Thursday, March 25th, 3-4:30 pm, The Princeton Review is hosting "Inclusion and Equity in College Admissions," a roundtable panel with experts discussing Historically Black Colleges & Universities, Hispanic-Serving Institutions, LGBTQ friendly campuses, and other aspects of belonging in the college process. After hearing from our panel of experts, students will be able to ask questions and express concerns about the admissions process. Click HERE to register or go to edhs.org>counseling>college rep visits & fairs

Students in 9th to 11 grade, don't forget to register for next year's classes by this Friday, Mar. 26th! Click on this Registration Info Page for all things related to registration.
