What happens if you missed the FAFSA deadline?

If you missed the FAFSA deadline of March 2nd, you may not be eligible to access some forms of financial aid for the 2023-2024 academic year. Some states and colleges continue to award aid to FAFSA latecomers, but your chances get much slimmer, and the payout is often lower. Friendly reminder that March 2nd was a hard deadline for the Dream Act Application. For FAFSA, there is the end-of-June federal deadline of June 30th, so please apply if you haven't submitted your application, especially if you are attending community college! You can also pursue alternative routes such as scholarships, private loans and grants, contact your college, or look into state or local financial aid programs for assistance.

Mike Oberle Scholarship - This $500 scholarship, in honor of Mr. Oberle, will be awarded to an EDHS senior who embodies his can-do spirit and Hawk Pride, has an unweighted 3.0 GPA, and will major in the sciences or education at a four-year college. Apply here! Due on 4/28!

Golden Elementary Scholarship - Did you promote from Golden? Then this scholarship is for you!

More Scholarship Opportunities here!
